GREAT RELIEF IS FELT

RUSSIANS PLEASANT AT REPORTS
OF REPULSE OF THE ATTACK
ON PORT ARTHUR.

NO HOPE FOR THE FORTRESS

HIGH OFFICERS OF THE RUSSIAN WAR OFFICE PREPARED TO HEAR OF ITS FALL.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—Great relief is felt here in view of reports indicating that the Japanese assaults on Port Arthur have been unsuccessful. A direct report from the Russian consul at Chefoo says he has received information from Chinese sources that the Japanese finally relinquished the attempt on Nov. 3, the mikado's birthday, after losing enormously. The consul says the carnage was awful. The bombardment continued six days without intermission. The Japanese breached and took Fort No. 3, but, according to the Chinese, were forced to abandon it, owing to the concentrated fire from the supporting fortifications.

No confirmation has been received here of the report that General Stoessel was wounded.

Among high officers at the war office, where the true conditions inside the fortress of Port Arthur are known, General Stoessel's ability to hold out against the efforts the Japanese concentrated upon it during the past ten days is regarded as marvelous, but no confidence in the ultimate result is entertained. Officials have been quite prepared to hear that the fortress had fallen.

LETTER FROM PORT ARTHUR.

Describes Terrible Condition in Besieged Fortress.

London, Nov. 5.—The Daily Mail's Chefoo correspondent has obtained a letter from a Russian in Port Arthur dated Oct. 27, in which the writer declares that it would need the pen of Zola or the brush of Vereschagin to picture the awfulness of the siege. The letter continues:

"The uncanny part of it all is that men meet death in utter silence. One sees the fiercest of fights but hears no sound. One moonlight night at Etse mountain I watched an assault of a ghostly mass of moving figures, through which continual lanes were made by our guns. These gaps were closed up as if by magic, and the masses surged onward while our men, forsaking the trenches, sought the shelter of the forts. On they came until, when they were close up to us, the mines exploded and the earth opened. Bodies were hurled high in the air and then sank again to earth. Hands clutched rifles, and in the moonlight the bayonets looked like fireworks shooting upward and ascending point downward into the bodies of men. I dream of the sight even now.

"All the inventions of military genius are not able to daunt the Japanese, who fight with Titanic energy. Our soldiers are gladiators and great hearted heroes.

"The sortie of the fleet failed because of inability to repair vessels previously damaged.

"We have not a single bottle of anaesthetics left. Just think what agony the wounded must endure. The food is of the coarsest, and even that is becoming scarce, while disease is rife and sanitary conditions are deplorable. It is impossible to repair the ships with our scant resources; but we are all determined to hold out, come what will, in the hope of relief. For every man we lose our foes bemoan the loss of a hundred."

QUIET AROUND MUKDEN.

Japs Bombard Russians for Only a Short Time.

At Russian Headquarters, Mukden, Nov. 5.—Almost complete calm has prevailed here since noon of Nov. 3. At daybreak Friday the Japanese fired a few shrapnels at men working in the trenches along the center of the Russian right flank, but the firing soon ceased.

AGAIN FIND THE TRAIL.

Wyoming Sheriffs Keep Up Pursuit of Cody Robbers.

Deer Ranch, Wyo., Nov. 5.—Sheriff Stough of Fremont county and Sheriff Fenton and posse of Big Horn arrived here shortly after sundown Friday, having found the trail of the Cody bank robbers again and followed it into the very heart of the bad lands. They are not more than ten miles behind the outlaws. Reliable information has been received here that the bandits have taken refuge at the ranch house of a sympathizer near the notorious Hole-in-the-Wall rendezvous, southwest of this place, and do not know that the officers have followed this far.

Sheriff Webb and a large posse have started for the scene from Casper and a bloody battle is certain to occur during the next thirty-six hours, either at the western or eastern exit of the Hole-in-the-Wall or in the vicinity of the recent hiding place of the outlaws.

Two Men Killed in Wreck.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 5.—As a result of a wreck on a branch line of the Atlanta, Knoxville and Northern railroad near Ball Ground, Ga., late Friday, two men are dead and several others seriously injured. The dead are J. P. Harrison and A. C. Gaddis.

THE NORTH SEA TRAGEDY.

Russian Participant Tells of Events Leading Up to Cannonade.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—The local newspapers and correspondents have been intermitting in their efforts to interview Captain Claudio and his fellow officers from the Baltic squadron, who have heretofore steadfastly refused to talk for publication. The Moscow Vremya Saturday morning, however, prints a long letter dated Vigo, Oct. 28, and credited to a member of the Baltic squadron containing a remarkable summary of events leading up to the firing on the British trawlers and the incidents of the night of Oct. 21. The letter states that Admiral Rojestvensky and the admiralty, before the sailing of the squadron, received from secret agents a mass of information regarding the plans and whereabouts of Japanese in European waters. The letter says:

"The Japanese had torpedo boats in the Norwegian fjords and also purchased a number of fishing vessels at Hamburg, Hull, Southampton and Christiania. The Russians also purchased a number of fishers, small steamers, for scouting duty.

"The Russian government warned the governments of Germany, Denmark and Great Britain of the information in its possession and asked that special precautions be taken to keep the track of the squadron clear of commercial vessels. Germany and Denmark both responded, Denmark particularly sent a warship with the squadron and warned off a number of fishermen and coasting craft. Before leaving Skagen, Admiral Rojestvensky received fresh specific information stating that four Japanese torpedo boats accompanied by a collier were waiting west of Cape Skagen.

Japs Obligated to Follow.

"The Baltic squadron left in the morning and the Japanese in order to make a night attack were obliged to follow and catch up with the warships in the North sea."

The writer claims all the Russian torpedo boats were sent ahead of the squadron and he claims Admiral Rojestvensky received wireless messages from the transport Kamchatka saying she was thirty miles in the rear with her machinery damaged and asking the squadron's whereabouts in detail. The message excited suspicion and an inquiry from the fleet was unanswered. The writer claims that at 12:55 that night a searchlight was thrown on the fleet and two strange torpedo boats were seen, but they darted ahead, though one was thought to have been sunk by the Russian fire. The fleet had then gotten entangled with the trawlers' fleet which was displaying no lights, flags or signals. Admiral Rojestvensky signalled the squadron to stop firing. Some of the trawlers were then quite close under the bows of the squadron. The Russian ships did not stop or inquire whether assistance was needed. The letter states that Admiral Rojestvensky was detained outside of Brest to wait for orders and the proceeded to Vigo.

PARIS THE MEETING PLACE.

Anglo-Russian Commission of Inquiry to Consist of Five Admirals.

Paris, Nov. 5.—Foreign Minister Delcasse announced to the council of ministers during the day the details of the approaching session of the Anglo-Russian commission in the North sea incident. He said that by agreement between both parties Paris had now been formally determined on for the sessions of the commission. These might begin about Nov. 16, if arrangements were possible to secure a full attendance by that time. Otherwise the sessions would open soon after that date. The commission would be composed of British, Russian, French and American admirals, one from each country, these four to select a fifth admiral. The sessions will be held at the foreign office, probably in the hall of the ambassadors. M. Delcasse is arranging to give the commission every facility. It is the understanding that the commission will hear oral testimony, chiefly that of the Russian officers who were detached from their ships at Vigo and the principal witnesses who testified at the Hull inquest. The desire of the authorities here is to expedite the inquiry, as it is understood to be the wish of all concerned to reach an early decision.

BRITISH BATTLESHIPS SAIL.

Two of Them Leave Gibraltar to Patrol the Straits.

Gibraltar, Nov. 5.—The battleships Victorious and Magnificent have sailed under orders to patrol the straits. The battleships illustrious and Jupiter have been ordered to put to sea immediately and it is believed they will proceed westward.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 5.—H. M. S. Grafton and H. M. S. Flora have received orders to leave immediately for England.

LOST WITH HER ENTIRE CREW.

German Bark Pioneer Sinks With Eighteen Men.

Hamburg, Nov. 5.—The German bark Pioneer of Bremerhaven, from Buenos Ayres for Hamburg, has been lost with her entire crew of eighteen. The Pioneer sailed from Buenos Ayres April 11 for Falmouth, England, and was posted at Lloyds as missing Sept. 14.

TREATY WITH GERMANY.

Arbitration Pact Now Being Negotiated in Washington.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Negotiations have been initiated for a treaty of arbitration between Germany and the United States upon the suggestion of President Roosevelt. These negotiations will be conducted by Ambassador Sternburg on the part of Germany, and Secretary Hay on the part of the United States.

STEAMER GIRONDE IS LOST IN A COLLISION OFF THE COAST OF ALGERIA.

HUNDRED PEOPLE DROWNED

SHIP MANAGED TO MAKE THEIR ESCAPE.

Bona, Algeria, Nov. 5.—One hundred persons were drowned during the night by the sinking of the French steamer Gironde after having been in collision with the French steamer A. Schiaffino near Herbillon, twenty-three miles from Bona. The Gironde left Bona with 110 passengers, of whom 100 were Algerians.

SLAPPED MINISTER OF WAR.

French Nationalist Deputy Starts a Rough House.

Paris, Nov. 5.—Friday's sitting of the chamber of deputies was one of the stormiest and most heated in recent years, the excitement culminating when Gabriel Syveton, a prominent Nationalist deputy, stepped up to General Andre, the minister of war, and slapped his face. After accomplishing this feat, Syveton retreated rapidly to the uppermost row of seats, taking refuge behind members of the opposition. A tremendous tumult ensued, deputies of all parties crowding upon the floor of the house, where a free fight was soon in progress. Speaker Brisson left the chair, thus suspending the sitting. Eventually order was restored, and the sitting being resumed, Syveton's temporary exclusion was voted. The offender, however, refused to quit his seat and it became necessary again to suspend the sitting while he was removed by a military guard.

It is probable that this misconduct, which occurred just before the final division, materially contributed to strengthen the position of the cabinet, which at one time seemed very critical; for, after securing a majority of only two on a preliminary question, the government finally carried a vote of confidence by over 100 majority.

Deputies who witnessed the assault upon the minister or war say that General Andre was wholly taken by surprise and was struck with such violence that he would have fallen had not Premier Combes stepped forward and supported him. General Andre's face was much swollen and was cut by a ring worn by Syveton.

ENGINEERS' STRIKE ENDED.

Union Is Absorbed by the Mine Workers' Organization.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 5.—The strike of the Hoisting Engineers' union of Illinois came to an end Friday night when the union was absorbed by the United Mine Workers of America. At a joint conference of the miners and operators held Friday the engineers offered to arbitrate, but the operators refused. The Brotherhood of Coal Hoisting Engineers was then disrupted and the men were given the privilege to resume work at once. The miners sent out notices Friday to members of their union to return to work immediately. Should the miners and operators be unable to agree upon a wage scale for the engineers the matter will be arbitrated.

DAVIS APPEALS FOR SUPPORT.

Asks His Fellow Townsmen to Vote for Him.

Elkins, W. Va., Nov. 5.—Henry G. Davis appealed to his fellow townsmen last night to support him as the Democratic nominee for the vice presidency. The appeal was responded to by tumultuous applause by as many of the citizens of Elkins as could get into the local opera house. The meeting here was the culmination of a day of campaigning on a special train. The appeal of Mr. Davis to his "home folks," as he stated it, was his masterpiece of the campaign.

BANDITS HOLD UP CROWD.

Sixteen Men Lose Cash and Valuables at Niagara, N. D.

Laramie, N. D., Nov. 5.—About 1 o'clock in the morning two men entered the poolroom of Pat Hursh at Niagara, and ordered sixteen men who were in the room to hold up their hands. The demand was complied with and while one robber kept the crowd covered the other went through them securing $500 in cash and valuables, rings, etc. There is no clue to the robbers.

LITERALLY STARVED TO DEATH.

Tom Wall of Chicago Dies Near Afton, Ia.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 5.—The emaciated body of Tom Wall of Chicago was found Friday in the underbrush near the town of Afton, Ia. The man had literally starved to death. He had been in the neighborhood about a week, but had been unable to secure work. The coroner's jury found that death was due to physical exhaustion and insufficiency of warm clothing.

Private Bank Robbed.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 5.—The safe of James L. Blodgett, an aged private banker at Hermitage, was blown open and $1,500 in cash and certificates of deposit amounting to $22,000 was taken.

Wealthy Woman Suicides.

Palmyra, Wis., Nov. 5.—Beset by petty annoyances and threatened with a lawsuit, Mrs. A. D. Love, a wealthy resident of this city, Friday committed suicide with strychnine.

Japs Using Dogs as Scouts.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—A special dispatch from Mukden says the Japanese are using dogs to locate the positions of the Russian sentinels and outposts.

COSTLY FIRE IN GEORGIA.

Property Valued at Over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Destroyed.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 5.—Tifton, Ga., suffered the most disastrous conflagration in the history of the city Friday. The loss is estimated at approximately $250,000.

Last Big Republican Meeting.

New York, Nov. 5.—The last large Republican meeting of the present campaign in this city was held Friday night at Durland's Riding academy. The fact that Elihu Root was to be the principal speaker filled the hall and hundreds were unable to gain entrance.

SHIP MANAGED TO MAKE THEIR ESCAPE.

Bona, Algeria, Nov. 5.—One hundred persons were drowned during the night by the sinking of the French steamer Gironde after having been in collision with the French steamer A. Schaffino near Herbillon, twenty-three miles from Bona. The Gironde left Bona with 110 passengers, of whom 100 were Algerians.

SLAPPED MINISTER OF WAR.

French Nationalist Deputy Starts a Rough House.

Paris, Nov. 5.—Friday's sitting of the chamber of deputies was one of the stormiest and most heated in recent years, the excitement culminating when Gabriel Syveton, a prominent Nationalist deputy, stepped up to General Andre, the minister of war, and slapped his face. After accomplishing this feat, Syveton retreated rapidly to the uppermost row of seats, taking refuge behind members of the opposition. A tremendous tumult ensued, deputies of all parties crowding upon the floor of the house, where a free fight was soon in progress. Speaker Brisson left the chair, thus suspending the sitting. Eventually order was restored, and the sitting being resumed, Syveton's temporary exclusion was voted. The offender, however, refused to quit his seat and it became necessary again to suspend the sitting while he was removed by a military guard.

It is probable that this misconduct, which occurred just before the final division, materially contributed to strengthen the position of the cabinet, which at one time seemed very critical; for, after securing a majority of only two on a preliminary question, the government finally carried a vote of confidence by over 100 majority. Deputies who witnessed the assault upon the minister or war say that General Andre was wholly taken by surprise and was struck with such violence that he would have fallen had not Premier Combes stepped forward and supported him. General Andre's face was much swollen and was cut by a ring worn by Syveton.

ENGINEERS' STRIKE ENDED.

Union Is Absorbed by the Mine Workers' Organization.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 5.—The strike of the Hoisting Engineers' union of Illinois came to an end Friday night when the union was absorbed by the United Mine Workers of America. At a joint conference of the miners and operators held Friday the engineers offered to arbitrate, but the operators refused. The Brotherhood of Coal Hoisting Engineers was then disrupted and the men were given the privilege to resume work at once. The miners sent out notices Friday to members of their union to return to work immediately. Should the miners and operators be unable to agree upon a wage scale for the engineers the matter will be arbitrated.

DAVIS APPEALS FOR SUPPORT.

Asks His Fellow Townsmen to Vote for Him.

Elkins, W. Va., Nov. 5.—Henry G. Davis appealed to his fellow townsmen last night to support him as the Democratic nominee for the vice presidency. The appeal was responded to by tumultuous applause by as many of the citizens of Elkins as could get into the local opera house. The meeting here was the culmination of a day of campaigning on a special train. The appeal of Mr. Davis to his "home folks," as he stated it, was his masterpiece of the campaign.

BANDITS HOLD UP CROWD.

Sixteen Men Lose Cash and Valuables at Niagara, N. D.

Larimore, N. D., Nov. 5.—About 1 o'clock in the morning two men entered the poolroom of Pat Hursh at Niagara, and ordered sixteen men who were in the room to hold up their hands. The demand was complied with and while one robber kept the crowd covered the other went through them, securing $500 in cash and valuables, rings, etc. There is no clue to the robbers.

LITERALLY STARVED TO DEATH.

Tom Wall of Chicago Dies Near Afton, Ia.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 5.—The emaciated body of Tom Wall of Chicago was found Friday in the underbrush near the town of Afton, Ia. The man had literally starved to death. He had been in the neighborhood about a week, but had been unable to secure work. The coroner's jury found that death was due to physical exhaustion and insufficiency of warm clothing.

Private Bank Robbed.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 5.—The safe of James L. Blodgett, an aged private banker at Hermitage, was blown open and $1,500 in cash and certificates of deposit amounting to $22,000 was taken.

Wealthy Woman Suicides.

Palmyra, Wis., Nov. 5.—Beset by petty annoyances and threatened with a lawsuit, Mrs. A. D. Love, a wealthy resident of this city, Friday committed suicide with strychnine.

Japs Using Dogs as Scouts.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—A special dispatch from Mukden says the Japanese are using dogs to locate the positions of the Russian sentinels and outposts.

COSTLY FIRE IN GEORGIA.

Property Valued at Over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Destroyed.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 5.—Tifton, Ga., suffered the most disastrous conflagration in the history of the city Friday. The loss is estimated at approximately $250,000.

Last Big Republican Meeting.

New York, Nov. 5.—The last large Republican meeting of the present campaign in this city was held Friday night at Durland's Riding academy. The fact that Elihu Root was to be the principal speaker filled the hall and hundreds were unable to gain entrance.

GREAT RELIEF IS FELT

OF REPULSE OF THE ATTACK
ON PORT ARTHUR.

NO HOPE FOR THE FORTRESS

HIGH OFFICERS OF THE RUSSIAN
WAR OFFICE PREPARED TO HEAR OF ITS FALL.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—Great relief is felt here in view of reports indicating that the Japanese assaults on Port Arthur have been unsuccessful. A direct report from the Russian consul at Chefoo says he has received information from Chinese sources that the Japanese finally relinquished the attempt on Nov. 3, the mikado's birthday, after losing enormously. The consul says the carnage was awful. The bombardment continued six days without intermission. The Japanese breached and took Fort No. 3, but, according to the Chinese, were forced to abandon it, owing to the concentrated fire from the supporting fortifications.

No confirmation has been received here of the report that General Stoessel was wounded.

Among high officers at the war office, where the true conditions inside the fortress of Port Arthur are known, General Stoessel's ability to hold out against the efforts the Japanese concentrated upon it during the past ten days is regarded as marvelous, but no confidence in the ultimate result is entertained. Officials have been quite prepared to hear that the fortress had fallen.

LETTER FROM PORT ARTHUR.

Describes Terrible Condition in Besieged Fortress.

London, Nov. 5.—The Daily Mail's Chefoo correspondent has obtained a letter from a Russian in Port Arthur dated Oct. 27, in which the writer declares that it would need the pen of Zola or the brush of Verestchagin to picture the awfulness of the siege. The letter continues:

"The uncanny part of it all is that men meet death in utter silence. One sees the fiercest of fights but hears no sound. One moonlight night at Elise mountain I watched an assault of a ghostly mass of moving figures, through which continual lanes were made by our guns. These gaps were closed up as if by magic, and the masses surged onward while our men, forsaking the trenches, sought the shelter of the forts. On they came until, when they were close up to us, the mines exploded and the earth opened. Bodies were hurled high in the air and then sank again to earth. Hands clutched rifles, and in the moonlight the bayonets looked like firework shooting upward and ascending point downward into the bodies of men. I dream of the sight even now.

All the inventions of military genius are not able to daunt the Japanese, who fight with Titanic energy. Our soldiers are gladiators and great hearted heroes.

"The sortie of the fleet failed because of inability to repair vessels previously damaged.

"We have not a single bottle of anaesthetics left. Just think what agony the wounded must endure. The food is of the coarsest, and even that is becoming scarce, while disease is rife and sanitary conditions are deplorable. It is impossible to repair the ships with our scant resources; but we are all determined to hold out, come what will, in the hope of relief. For every man we lose our foes bemoan the loss of a hundred."

QUIET AROUND MUKDEN.

Japs Bombard Russians for Only a Short Time.

At Russian Headquarters, Mukden, Nov. 5.—Almost complete calm has prevailed here since noon of Nov. 3. At daybreak Friday the Japanese fired a few shrapnels at men working in the trenches along the center of the Russian right flank, but the firing soon ceased.

AGAIN FIND THE TRAIL.

Wyoming Sheriffs Keep Up Pursuit of Cody Robbers.

Deer Ranch, Wyo., Nov. 5.—Sheriff Stough of Fremont county and Sheriff Fenton and posse of Big Horn arrived here shortly after sundown Friday, having found the trail of the Cody bank robbers again and followed it into the very heart of the bad lands. They are not more than ten miles behind the outlaws. Reliable information has been received here that the bandits have taken refuge at the ranch house of a sympathizer near the notorious Hole-in-the-Wall rendezvous, southwest of this place, and do not know that the officers have followed this far.

Sheriff Webb and a large posse have started for the scene from Casper and a bloody battle is certain to occur during the next thirty-six hours, either at the western or eastern exit of the Hole-in-the-Wall or in the vicinity of the recent hiding place of the outlaws.

Two Men Killed in Wreck.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 5.—As a result of a wreck on a branch line of the Atlanta, Knoxville and Northern railroad near Ball Ground, Ga., late Friday, two men are dead and several others seriously injured. The dead are J. P. Harrison and A. C. Gaddis.

THE NORTH SEA TRAGEDY.

Russian Participant Tells of Events Leading Up to Cannonade.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—The local newspapers and correspondents have been intermitting in their efforts to interview Captain Claudio and his fellow officers from the Baltic squadron, who have hereto steadfastly refused to talk for publication. The Moscow Vremya Saturday morning, however, prints a long letter dated Vigo, Oct. 28, and credited to a member of the Baltic squadron containing a remarkable summary of events leading up to the firing on the British trawlers and the incidents of the night of Oct. 21. The letter states that Admiral Rojestvensky and the admiralty, before the sailing of the squadron, received from secret agents a mass of information regarding the plans and whereabouts of Japanese in European waters. The letter says:

"The Japanese had torpedo boats in the Norwegian fjords and also purchased a number of fishing vessels at Hamburg, Hull, Southampton and Christiania. The Russians also purchased a number of fishers, small steamers, for scouting duty.

"The Russian government warned the governments of Germany, Denmark and Great Britain of the information in its possession and asked that special precautions be taken to keep the track of the squadron clear of commercial vessels. Germany and Denmark both responded, Denmark particularly sent a warship with the squadron and warned off a number of fishermen and coasting craft. Before leaving Skagen, Admiral Rojestvensky received fresh specific information stating that four Japanese torpedo boats accompanied by a collier were waiting west of Cape Skagen.

Japs Obligated to Follow.

"The Baltic squadron left in the morning and the Japanese in order to make a night attack were obliged to follow and catch up with the warships in the North sea."

The writer claims all the Russian torpedo boats were sent ahead of the squadron and he claims Admiral Rojestvensky received wireless messages from the transport Kamchatka saying she was thirty miles in the rear with her machinery damaged and asking the squadron's whereabouts in detail. The message excited suspicion and an inquiry from the fleet was unanswered.

The writer claims that at 12:55 that night a searchlight was thrown on the fleet and two strange torpedo boats were seen, but they darted ahead, though one was thought to have been sunk by the Russian fire. The fleet had then gotten entangled with the trawlers' fleet which was displaying no lights, flags or signals. Admiral Rojestvensky signalled the squadron to stop firing. Some of the trawlers were then quite close under the bows of the squadron. The Russian ships did not stop or inquire whether assistance was needed. The letter states that Admiral Rojestvensky was detained outside of Brest to wait for orders and the proceeded to Vigo.

PARIS THE MEETING PLACE.

Anglo-Russian Commission of Inquiry to Consist of Five Admirals.

Paris, Nov. 5.—Foreign Minister Delcasse announced to the council of ministers during the day the details of the approaching session of the Anglo-Russian commission in the North sea incident. He said that by agreement between both parties Paris had now been formally determined on for the sessions of the commission. These might begin about Nov. 16, if arrangements were possible to secure a full attendance by that time. Otherwise the sessions would open soon after that date. The commission would be composed of British, Russian, French and American admirals, one from each country, these four to select a fifth admiral. The sessions will be held at the foreign office, probably in the hall of the ambassadors. M. Delcasse is arranging to give the commission every facility. It is the understanding that the commission will hear oral testimony, chiefly that of the Russian officers who were detached from their ships at Vigo and the principal witnesses who testified at the Hull inquiry. The desire of the authorities here is to expedite the inquiry, as it is understood to be the wish of all concerned to reach an early decision.

JOHNSON will be Dunn plenty next Tuesday.

ANYWAY the democrats can count on the electoral vote of Texas.

THE republican nominees for county offices are exceptionally good men this year, and should receive the support of every republican.

HON. C. B. BUCKMAN's majority of 5000 two years ago will be greatly exceeded this year is now conceded by all, and in point of efficient services it should be.

Vote the republican ticket and vote it straight, and you will make no mistake, especially this year, as every man on the ticket is competent for the office he aspires to.

It is now freely predicted that Roosevelt will get the largest electoral majority since President Grant, exceeding McKinley's great majorities four and eight years ago.

"I was an Ole man two years ago, but am going to vote for Archie Purdy this year," is an expression one hears on every side this year. It certainly looks as though the county would have a republican sheriff the next two years.

Vote for Hon. J. T. Frater for state senator. No other resident of the county is his equal in the necessary qualifications for the position, and he is the soul of honor and ever zealous for the interests of all citizens of the county regardless of politics, and in point of party services no republican in the county is more deserving for faithful services than Mr. Frater.

REWARD MERITORIOUS SERVICES

How any republican can cast his vote for Johnson, the democratic candidate for governor, as based on the public record of the two men, is something THE DISPATCH cannot understand. Mr. Johnson was for six years a member of the state senate and during that time not a single measure that tends to the welfare of the state originated or was supported by him. On the contrary he opposed almost every republican measure passed with this end in view. On the other hand no sooner was Hon. R. C. Dunn seated in the legislature than he began to work for the passage of laws to reform the handling of state school lands and state swamp lands, which have resulted in the saving of thousands of dollars for the state schools, and which were so greatly appreciated by the voters of the state that it resulted in his promotion to state auditor. As state auditor he was even more zealous for the state's interests. During his six years' term of office he forced the collection of just ten times as much for trespass on school lands as had been collected by all the state auditors preceding him since the organization of the state government, and he established a system of records of accounting for state lands that made fraud nearly impossible. By his own efforts he also forced the big mining interests of St. Louis county to pay their just share of the taxes, adding millions to the state tax roll, and the big corporations of the twin cities were treated likewise. That is why they are now so bitterly opposing him. As state auditor he drew up and had passed by the legislature the board of control bill, by which thousands of dollars have been saved to the tax payers of the state in handling the state institutions, and many other worthy measures for the betterment of the service originated with him. He has been constantly working for the interests of the people of the state and if any candidate for governor ever deserved reward at the hands of the people of the state for services rendered, it is Hon. R. C. Dunn. Hence we are at a loss to understand how any republican can vote against him. That he is not a polished society gentleman certainly should not count against his sterling worth and zealous public services, especially as his opponent in equal time as a public servant accomplished absolutely nothing for the interests of the people of the state.

F. H. Poetz has accepted a position with Weitzel, the druggist at Little Falls. Mr. Poetz has many friends who are glad to know that he will still be within reach of Brainerd.

Word has been received of the death of D. A. Stoops at Grand Forks, N. D. The remains will be brought here tomorrow morning for burial. Deceased was an old resident of Brainerd.

It is understood that W. R. Hawkins, who runs the Councils saloon, has rented the store room now occupied by Olaf Skauge, the druggist, and he will move in as soon as Mr. Skauge moves out.

L. A. Rosing passed through the city this afternoon accompanied by Cleve Van Dyke, democratic candidate for congress. They were en route to Staples where a meeting will be held tonight.

Mrs. Oscar Parks has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Congdon for a few days. Mr. Parks has been chief clerk under Supt. Sovereign at Staples but has resigned and he and his wife will leave shortly for South Tacoma, Wash.

The members of the Ladies Aid society of the First Congregational church gave Mrs. N. B. Chase a pleasant surprise at Mrs. Losey's last evening. The event was the occasion of her birthday anniversary. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was spent.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their regular monthly meeting with Mrs. J. Rhodes, corner 5th and Kingwood, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The business session will be followed by a social hour, after which supper will be served, for which fifteen cents will be charged. All are invited.

Day before yesterday a picnic was given on the banks of the Mississippi river by several north side ladies. They had their lunch and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon. This would make the people of Georgia turn green with envy this time of the year. Mrs. D. M. Clark acted as chaperone for the party.

About thirty-five of the ladies of the Degree of Honor met at the home of Mrs. P. M. Johnson on Ninth street south Friday afternoon and gave Mrs. Will Soderholm, who is about to leave for Tacoma, a genuine surprise. She was presented with a token of the esteem in which she is held by the ladies of the order.

STOVE SALE

This will be the First Genuine Great Stove Sale ever held in Brainerd; the particular difference between this sale and the many other sales going on at the present time, is that we do not oblige you to pay spot cash to get the benefit of it.

We have fifty-one different kinds of Heaters and six varieties of Ranges and we have to keep about five hundred stoves on hand to back up the samples, and our store is so crowded with goods that we haven't room even to show such a large variety of samples.

What we want to do this fall is to close out this entire stock so as to start in next season with a smaller variety and consequently smaller stock. We would rather sell all of these stoves on the installment plan than to sell only part of them for cash and carry the balance over another year, and we would rather you would have the use and comfort of a good Heater or Range and pay for it at your convenience than to keep them in our warehouse where they are doing no one any good.

It is rather an unusual proceeding to offer goods on the installment plan at a closing out sale, therefore we have explained our reasons as above, to convince you that we mean business.

Come in and see what Bargains we have to offer is all we ask.

JOHNSON will be Dunn plenty next Tuesday.

ANYWAY the democrats can count on the electoral vote of Texas.

THE republican nominees for county offices are exceptionally good men this year, and should receive the support of every republican.

HON. C. B. BUCKMAN'S majority of 5000 two years ago will be greatly exceeded this year is now conceded by all, and in point of efficient services it should be.

VOTE the republican ticket and vote it straight, and you will make no mistake, especially this year, as every man on the ticket is competent for the office he aspires to.

It is now freely predicted that Roosevelt will get the largest electoral majority since President Grant, exceeding McKinley's great majorities four and eight years ago.

"I was an Ole man two years ago, but am going to vote for Archie Purdy this year," is an expression one hears on every side this year. It certainly looks as though the county would have a republican sheriff the next two years.

VOTE for Hon. J. T. Frater for state senator. No other resident of the county is his equal in the necessary qualifications for the position, and he is the soul of honor and ever zealous for the interests of all citizens of the county regardless of politics, and in point of party services no republican in the county is more deserving for faithful services than Mr. Frater.

REWARD MERITORIOUS SERVICES

How any republican can cast his vote for Johnson, the democratic candidate for governor, as based on the public record of the two men, is something THE DISPATCH cannot understand. Mr. Johnson was for six years a member of the state senate and during that time not a single measure that tends to the welfare of the state originated or was supported by him. On the contrary he opposed almost every republican measure passed with this end in view. On the other hand no sooner was Hon. R. C. Dunn seated in the legislature than he began to work for the passage of laws to reform the handling of state school lands and state swamp lands, which have resulted in the saving of thousands of dollars for the state schools, and which were so greatly appreciated by the voters of the state that it resulted in his promotion to state auditor. As state auditor he was even more zealous for the state's interests. During his six years' term of office he forced the collection of just ten times as much for trespass on school lands as had been collected by all the state auditors preceding him since the organization tion of the state government, and he established a system of records of accounting for state lands that made fraud nearly impossible. By his own efforts he also forced the big mining interests of St. Louis county to pay their just share of the taxes, adding millions to the state tax roll, and the big corporations of the twin cities were treated likewise. That is why they are now so bitterly opposing him. As state auditor he drew up and had passed by the legislature the board of control bill, by which thousands of dollars have been saved to the tax payers of the state in handling the state institutions, and many other worthy measures for the betterment of the service originated with him. He has been constantly working for the interests of the people of the state and if any candidate for governor ever deserved reward at the hands of the people of the state for services rendered, it is Hon. R. C. Dunn. Hence we are at a loss to understand how any republican can vote against him. That he is not a polished society gentleman certainly should not count against his sterling worth and zealous public services, especially as his opponent in equal time as a public servant accomplished absolutely nothing for the interests of the people of the state.

THE LIBRARY IS ABOUT COMPLETED

Contractor Rowley is Putting the Finishing Touches on this Fine Structure

SOME INTERESTING NOTES Board is Selecting Some Fifteen Hundred New Volumes for the Library

Contractor Rowley has about finished the work on the new Carnegie library in this city and it will not be long before it will be ready to turn over to the library board.

The building, while not the largest in the state, will be one of the finest and for absolute thoroughness it will excel anything in the northwest.

The board will in a short time commence to make arrangements for the dedicatory ceremonies, although there is nothing to be given out at present as to the date or what the program will consist of.

The board is busy these days selecting some fifteen or sixteen hundred new volumes for the library, which will be ordered in a short time.

Had a Fine Crop.

William Milligan, who has a farm south of the city, is still the most sanguine farmer in these parts. He was in THE DISPATCH office again yesterday afternoon extolling the merits of Crow Wing county and seems to have the figures to back up his statements. He had 59 acres of oats that went 37 bushels to the acre and ten acres that went as good as 77 bushels to the acre. Off ten acres of speltz he had a yield of 53 bushels. Ten acres of buckwheat yielded 139 bushels. Besides this all of his other farm products yielded well and he is singing the praises of Crow Wing county to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENTS

J. W. Underwood, of Staples, Has the Contract to Set About Thirty Bases for Them Here

J. W. Underwood drove to Brainerd Monday and Mr. Levi, one of the workmen in the marble works, went on Tuesday, to set about 30 bases for soldiers' monuments. The monuments were furnished by the government, but the slab was simply set in the ground, and many of them soon became out of plumb. The state furnishes the bases and Mr. Underwood secured the contract. The bases for the soldiers' monuments at this place were set last May. —Staples World.

TRADE IS RATHER QUIET.

Distribution Hampered by Weather and Other Conditions.

New York, Nov. 5.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says warm weather, activity in fall farm work and, to a lesser degree, ante-election interest have detracted from retail trade distribution north and south. For like reasons, jobbing sales are rather smaller in volume. Against this, however, is to be cited increased activity in a number of industries, headed by iron, steel and allied lines of manufacture. Resumption of work by 10,000 Eastern cotton mill hands is a feature, but the great Fall River tie up continues and the strike of comparatively small number of mine employees is responsible for the idleness of close to 40,000 Indiana and Illinois coal miners and higher prices for bituminous coal. A very general advance in staple prices covering a wide range of industry, is an event worthy of note. Reports from the winter wheat crop are of an immense, possibly a record, acreage in that cereal, though Hessian fly damage reports detract from an otherwise favorable report in the surplus producing states, west. Money is easy. The South gives relatively the best reports as to trade. Eastern trade reports show irregularity. Dry goods are rather quiet at New York, Philadelphia and Boston. Clothing is not yet active for spring and woolsens are rather quiet.

STRIKE MAY BE ARBITRATED.

Effort Will Be Made to Settle Cotton Mill Trouble.

Fall River, Mass., Nov. 5.—It is understood that steps have been taken to bring about another conference between representatives of the striking cotton mill operatives and the manufacturers to discuss a proposition to submit the strike matter to arbitration. It is said that in answer to repeated claims of the operatives that prices to prove the cost of manufacture have never been presented to the union, the mill men have announced a willingness to submit such figures to competent persons or person who will pass upon the correctness of them, both sides to agree to abide by the arbitrators' findings.

WORK OF A MASKED BANDIT.

Six Men Held Up and Robbed in a California Saloon.

Redding, Cal., Nov. 5.—A masked man armed with a pistol entered a saloon at Cottonwood Friday and lined six men up with their faces to the walls and their hands over their heads while he relieved them of $500 in cash and $1,800 in checks. Charles Emerson, one of the men held up, has been arrested on suspicion of complicity with the robber.

Fatal Gas Explosion.

Burgertstown, Pa., Nov. 5.—By an explosion of gas at a well on the J. W. Farrell farm, thirty miles from Burgertstown, Paul Decker, a tool dresser, twenty-six years of age, was burned to death, and Peter Smith, a helper, was seriously injured.

Engineer Killed in Wreck.

Mansfield, O., Nov. 5.—Vestibuled limited, eastbound, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, was wrecked several miles west of here at 7 o'clock last evening. Engineer Odenthal of Newark, O., was killed and the fireman sustained a broken leg.

Joker Shot and Killed.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 5.—James M. Maxwell, president of Local union No. 63, United Mine Workers of America, at Virden, was shot and killed by Thomas Hall, a bartender, while attempting to hold Hall up as a joke at night.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Insanity, Death or Health? No. 287 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo., March 29, 1903. I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness for eighteen months, unable to get a proper night's rest and feeling tired and worn out continually. I was easily irritated and hysterical at the slightest provocation, but Wine of Cardui gave me great relief. Within a week after I began using it I had my first real good night's rest that I had had for months. My appetite was soon restored, my general system toned up and nervousness became a thing of the past. I am so pleased to acknowledge the great curative merit of your health giving medicine and gladly endorse it.

Mrs. Harriet O. Best, CHAPLAIN, LADIES OF HONOR, No. 97.

WINE OF CARDUI

We want to call your attention to the complete and immediate relief Mrs. Best secured by taking Wine of Cardui. Within a week after she began taking Wine of Cardui, Mrs. Best had her first good night's rest for eighteen months. Her restlessness was caused by nervousness and Wine of Cardui, as the best menstrual regulator, has no superior in the world as a medicine to soothe a woman's nerves. Nervousness and hysteria are warnings of the approach of insanity and if relief is not secured the end can only be the asylum or the grave. With such an outlook as this before her, no suffering woman can reasonably refuse to give Wine of Cardui a trial. It brings a cure that thousands of women have sought for in vain. Will you secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today and start treatment? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

THE LIBRARY IS ABOUT COMPLETED

SOME INTERESTING NOTES

Board is Selecting Some Fifteen Hundred New Volumes for the Library

Contractor Rowley has about finished the work on the new Carnegie library in this city and it will not be long before it will be ready to turn over to the library board.

The building, while not the largest in the state, will be one of the finest and for absolute thoroughness it will excel anything in the northwest.

The board will in a short time commence to make arrangements for the dedicatory ceremonies, although there is nothing to be given out at present as to the date or what the program will consist of.

The board is busy these days selecting some fifteen or sixteen hundred new volumes for the library, which will be ordered in a short time.

I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness for eighteen months, unable to get a proper night's rest and feeling tired and worn out continually. I was easily irritated and hysterical at the slightest provocation, but Wine of Cardui gave me great relief. Within a week after I began using it I had my first real good night's rest that I had had for months. My appetite was soon restored, my general system toned up and nervousness became a thing of the past.

I am so pleased to acknowledge the great curative merit of your health giving medicine and gladly endorse it.

Mrs. Harriet O. Best

CHAIRMAN, LADIES OF HONOR, No. 97.

WINE OF CARDUI

We want to call your attention to the complete and immediate relief Mrs. Best secured by taking Wine of Cardui. Within a week after she began taking Wine of Cardui, Mrs. Best had her first good night's rest for eighteen months. Her restlessness was caused by nervousness and Wine of Cardui, as the best menstrual regulator, has no superior in the world as a medicine to soothe a woman's nerves. Nervousness and hysteria are warnings of the approach of insanity and if relief is not secured the end can only be the asylum or the grave. With such an outlook as this before her, no suffering woman can reasonably refuse to give Wine of Cardui a trial. It brings a cure that thousands of women have sought for in vain. Will you secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today and start treatment?

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

THE LIBRARY IS ABOUT COMPLETED

Contractor Rowley is Putting the Finishing Touches on this Fine Structure

SOME INTERESTING NOTES

Board is Selecting Some Fifteen Hundred New Volumes for the Library

Contractor Rowley has about finished the work on the new Carnegie library in this city and it will not be long before it will be ready to turn over to the library board.

The building, while not the largest in the state, will be one of the finest and for absolute thoroughness it will excel anything in the northwest.

The board will in a short time commence to make arrangements for the dedicatory ceremonies, although there is nothing to be given out at present as to the date or what the program will consist of.

The board is busy these days selecting some fifteen or sixteen hundred new volumes for the library, which will be ordered in a short time.

It is always a hard question to settle when one thinks of what to wear on your feet for winter. Can't we help you in this matter? We have all kinds of shoes. First of all the Ralston health shoe, a shoe that is built with a moulded foundation adjusted to nature's curves. "It guarantees instant ease." "The old shoe feeling." Has cork insoles. Water proof outer soles. It is a shoe right in every way. Then we have also the high and low cut cushion sole shoes, frost proof bottoms, leather lined, rubber heels, the proper shoe to wear without an overshoe. You can also find here a good line of heavy sole shoes that have all the style that can be put into shoes. We will be pleased to show you our line.

RUSHING THE WORK

Slipp-Gruenhagen Company Making Good Progress on the Lateral Sewers in the Second Ward.

"If the present weather continues for a time," said F. H. Gruenhagen of the Slipp-Gruenhagen company this morning, "we will be able to complete a large amount of the lateral sewer work in the Second ward before snow flies."

The company is making good progress and the first lateral started, which runs between Fourth and Fifth streets, is well under way.

DESIGNS ON BUTCHER SHOPS

Southeast Brainerd Shops also Pillaged by Thieves and Some Goods of Value Were Taken

It has come light that the Toger Peterson butcher shop was not the only one which was burglarized in the city night before last. The Southeast Brainerd Market was also entered and the thieves succeeded in getting away with quite a large amount of goods, but no cash. The police are working on the two burglaries and hope to land the guilty parties.

Had a Fine Crop.

William Milligan, who has a farm south of the city, is still the most sanguine farmer in these parts. He was in THE DISPATCH office again yesterday afternoon extolling the merits of Crow Wing county and seems to have the figures to back up his statements. He had 59 acres of oats that went 37 bushels to the acre and ten acres that went as good as 77 bushels to the acre. Off ten acres of speltz he had a yield of 53 bushels. Ten acres of buckwheat yielded 139 bushels. Besides this all of his other farm products yielded well and he is singing the praises of Crow Wing county to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENTS

J. W. Underwood, of Staples, Has the Contract to Set About Thirty Bases for Them Here

J. W. Underwood drove to Brainerd Monday and Mr. Levi, one of the workmen in the marble works, went on Tuesday, to set about 30 bases for soldiers' monuments. The monuments were furnished by the government, but the slab was simply set in the ground, and many of them soon became out of plumb. The state furnishes the bases and Mr. Underwood secured the contract. The bases for the soldiers' monuments at this place were set last May.—Staples World.

TRADE IS RATHER QUIET.

Distribution Hampered by Weather and Other Conditions.

New York, Nov. 5.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says warm weather, activity in fall farm work and, to a lesser degree, ante-election interest have detracted from retail trade distribution north and south. For like reasons, jobbing sales are rather smaller in volume. Against this, however, is to be cited increased activity in a number of industries, headed by iron, steel and allied lines of manufacture. Resumption of work by 10,000 Eastern cotton mill hands is a feature, but the great Fall River tie up continues and the strike of comparatively small number of mine employees is responsible for the idleness of close to 40,000 Indiana and Illinois coal miners and higher prices for bituminous coal. A very general advance in staple prices covering a wide range of industry, is an event worthy of note. Reports from the winter wheat crop are of an immense, possibly a record, acreage in that cereal, though Hessian fly damage reports detract from an otherwise favorable crop in the surplus producing states, west, Mexico, is to be cited increased activity in a number of industries, headed by iron, steel and allied lines of manufacture. REPLY BY ROOSEVELT

RECENT STATEMENTS OF JUDGE PARKER.

CHARACTERIZED AS UNTRUE

CHARGES OF THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE ARE HELD TO BE UNFOUNDED.

Washington, Nov. 5.—President Roosevelt Friday night made the following signed statement to the American people in answer to the charges against him and Chairman Cortelyou of the Republican national committee, by Judge Parker, Democratic candidate for the presidency:

"Certain slanderous statements with regard to myself and Mr. Cortelyou have been repeated time and again by Judge Parker, the candidate of the Democratic party for the presidency. He neither has produced nor can produce any proof of their truth, yet he has not withdrawn them, and as his position gives them wide currency I speak now lest the silence of self respect be misunderstood.

"Mr. Parker's charges are in effect that the president of the United States and Mr. Cortelyou, formerly Mr. Cleveland's executive clerk, then Mr. McKinley's and my secretary, then secretary of commerce and labor, and now chairman of the Republican national committee, have been in a conspiracy to blackmail corporations. Mr. Cortelyou using his knowledge gained while he was secretary of the department of commerce and labor to extort money from the corporations; and I, the president, having appointed him for this special purpose the gravamen of these charges lies in the assertion that the corporations have been blackmailed into contributing, and in the implication, which in one or two of Mr. Parker's speeches has taken the form practically of an assertion, that they have been promised certain immunities or favors or have been assured that they would receive some kind of improper consideration in view of their contributions.

Not the Question at Issue.

"That contributions have been made to the Republican committee, as contributions have been made to the Democratic committee, is not the question at issue. Mr. Parker's assertion is in effect that such contributions have been made for improper motives, either in consequence of threats or in consequence of improper promises, direct or indirect, on the part of the recipients.

"Mr. Parker knows best whether this is true of the contributions to his campaign fund, which have come through his trusted friends and advisers, who represent the great corporate interests that stand behind him. But there is not one particle of truth in the statement as regards anything that has gone on in the management of the Republican campaign. Mr. Parker's accusations against Mr. Cortelyou and me are monstrous. If true they would brand both of us forever with infamy; and inasmuch as they are false, heavy must be the condemnation of the man making them.

"I chose Mr. Cortelyou as chairman of the national committee after having failed successively to persuade Mr. Elihu Root, Mr. W. Murray Crane and Mr. Cornelius N. Bliss to accept the position. I choose him with extreme reluctance, because I could ill spare him from the cabinet. But I felt that he possessed the high integrity which I demanded in the man who was to manage my campaign. I contend that Mr. Parker and I should be judged by the public in the characteristics of the two men whom we chose to manage our campaigns; he by the character of his nominee, Mr. Thomas Taggart, and I by the character of Mr. Cortelyou.

Assertion Branded as False.

"The assertion that Mr. Cortelyou had any knowledge gained in any official position whereby he was enabled to secure and did secure any contributions from any corporation is a falsehood. The assertion that there had been any blackmail, direct or indirect, by Mr. Cortelyou or by me is a falsehood. The assertion that there has been made in my behalf and by any authority by Mr. Cortelyou or by any one else any pledge or promise, or that there has been any promise as to future immunities or benefits in recognition of any contribution from any source is a wicked falsehood.

"That Mr. Parker should desire to avoid the discussion of principles I can well understand; for it is but the bare truth to say that he has not attacked us on any matter of principle or upon any action of the government save after first misstating that principal or that action. But I cannot understand how any honorable man, a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people, can take refuge not merely in personalities, but in such base and unworthy personalities.

"If I deemed it necessary to support my flat denial by any evidence I would ask all men of common sense to ponder well what has been done in this campaign by Mr. Cortelyou and to compare it with what Mr. Parker himself did when he was managing Mr. Hill's campaign for governor, and to compare what has been done as regards the great corporations and moneyed interests under this administration with what was done under the last Democratic administration; while Mr. Olney was attorney general.

Parker's Statements Untrue.

"I would ask all honest men whether they seriously deem it possible that the course this administration has taken in every matter from the Northern Securities suit to the settlement of the anthracite coal strike is compatible with any theory of public behavior, save the theory of doing exact justice to all men without fear and without favoritism; I would ask all honest and fair minded men to remember that the agents through whom I have worked are Mr. Knox and Mr.

Moody in the department of justice; Mr. Cortelyou in the department of commerce and labor, and Mr. Garfield in the bureau of corporations, and that no such act of infamy as Mr. Parker charges could have been done without all three men being parties to it.

"The statements made by Mr. Parker are unqualifying and atrociously false. As Mr. Cortelyou has said to me more than once during this campaign, if elected, I shall go into the presidency unhampered by any pledge, promise, or understanding of any kind, sort or description, save my promise, made openly to the American people, that so far as in my power lies I shall see to it that every man has a square deal, no less and no more.

—THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

STATEMENT BY ODELL.

New York Governor Says Parker Owned Stock in a Trust.

New York, Nov. 5.—Governor Odell took up the matter of Judge Parker and the shipbuilding combine in his speech at the Murray Hill Luceum Friday night. He said:

"For the first time in my recollection a Democrat has seen fit to attack a president. I have stood the abuse heaped on my head, but when I find men parading as trust 'busters' when the contrary is in the truth I feel that it is not honest and is only being done to get our votes.

"I said Judge Parker had been connected with trusts. I know it. I know that Judge Parker had $20,000 of shipbuilding stock and the reason I know it is because he came to me and asked me to let him have it. I know it because I instructed my agent to give it to him and he paid for it. I can produce the documentary proof in a few hours by going to Newburg, where it is. A man who is attacking the trusts ought to come into court with clean hands. President Roosevelt, on the contrary, has been pulling down trusts. Honestly always wins, and Roosevelt has 100 per cent of honesty in his make up."

JUDGE PARKER WILL REPLY.

Will Answer President Roosevelt's Statement Saturday Night.

New York, Nov. 5.—The statement issued by President Roosevelt in Washington and the speech of Governor Odell in New York Friday night, in which the governor made certain charges against the Democratic candidate for president, were shown to Judge Parker at a late hour.

The judge had decided not to make any more speeches during this campaign, but after reading the president's statement and the governor's speech he announced that he would make a reply which will be delivered before the Kings County Democratic club Saturday night. Judge Parker would make no comment on the statement and speech last night.

CLEVELAND'S SECOND SPEECH.

The Former President Addresses a Large Crowd at Newark, N. J.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 5.—With a tribute to the strength and enthusiasm of the first voter, Former President Grover Cleveland, in this city last night began his second speech of the present campaign. He had waited ten minutes for the cessation of the cheering and noise that his appearance brought forth, and for thirty-five minutes after he began his address, 8,000 persons crowded together on the tankard of a riding academy, alternately listened and cheered.

The occasion was the closing Democratic rally of the campaign, a rally under the auspices of a club of "first voters."

This was Mr. Cleveland's first appearance this campaign in his own state. He came to Newark early in the evening and was the guest of former Senator James Smith, Jr. During his speech, Mr. Cleveland was interrupted by remarks of approval and on several occasions when he departed from his text to impress upon his hearers some point upon state issues, the demonstration broke out afresh and continued for several minutes. The remarks of the speaker upon the needs of a conservative government were received with prolonged outburst, and when he concluded rallying his hearers to the support of "that noble, that many standard bearer, Alton B. Parker," the enthusiasm seemed to gain renewed strength.

IN DEMOCRATIC STRONGHOLD.

Senator Fairbanks Tours Southern Part of Indiana.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 5.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks Friday covered the territory in Southern Indiana from Terre Haute to Evansville. The senator made fifteen speeches during the day's trip at Farmersburg, Shelbyville, Sullivan, Linton, Odon, Elmore, Washington, Vincennes, Princeton, Owensville, Cynthiana, Poseyville, Mount Vernon and Evansville. The evening meeting in this city, which was notably large, was presided over by Congressman Joseph M. Hemenway. The day's tour was mostly through the coal mining region of Indiana and the miners in many instances formed a large part of the senator's audiences. To them he emphasized the desirability of a continuance of Republican rule, because, he said, it was under Republican administration that all the prosperity had come to the mines, the farms and the factories during the past seven years. A large portion of the country through which Senator Fairbanks passed Friday is regarded as the Democratic stronghold of Indiana, and there were occasional cheers for Parker, but in the main the reception accorded the senator were cordial and enthusiastic.

SLAYER OF LAYTON SUICIDES.

Jacob Graves Found Dead in His Cabin in Iowa.

Burlington, Ia., Nov. 5.—Jacob Graves, who Thursday shot and killed Thomas Layton, was found in his cabin on Fry's island Friday by officers who were pursuing him. He had a bullet in his head. He had eluded justice by suicide. The remains were taken to Fort Madison and laid in the morgue beside his victim.

INSULT THEIR TEETH.

That's What People Do Who Do Not Masticate Their Food.

People who swallow their food whole are insulting their teeth. The teeth are there to perform their duty, and the one who fails to use them is implying that they are not fit for the duty assigned them. Again, he is letting them get rusty by disuse.

Don't favor the teeth until it is necessary. Give them plenty of work to do. Eat crusts, and when eating meat spare not the work of the teeth.

Few people will eat food from dirty fingers, yet hosts of men, women and children eat food with poorly kept teeth. What kind of care of the stomach is this?

Dressing table and vest pockets are filled with nail files, but the silk thread or the rubber band for removing particles of food from between the teeth is more essential. If the person who neglects his teeth would look often in the glass and smile broadly he would know how his greetings affect his friends. This is not vanity. It would remove from many every particle of conceit. Any smile is spoiled by ill kept teeth.

Brush the teeth before and after eating. Carry the brush in a pocket or handbag.

Use the silk thread or rubber band after meals. It can be carried with the brush.

weeping willows.

The Curious Manner of Their Introduction into England.

The Salix Babylonica or Willow of Babylon, the English weeping willow, is a native of the Levant, the coast of Persia and other places in the east. The manner of its introduction into England is curious and has been described:

Pope, the poet, having received a present of Turkey figs, observed that a twig of the banquet in which they had been packed was putting out a young green shoot. This he planted in his garden where it grew into a fine tree, and from this original stock all our weeping willows have descended.

This species of willow is generally planted by a still pool, to which it is an appropriate ornament, and when, in misty weather, drops of water are seen distilling from the extremities of its branches nothing could be more descriptive than the title it has obtained of the "weeping willow."

It is sometimes called Pope's willow, and the name Napoleon's willow has also been given to it, because a tree of this species overshadowed the emperor's tomb at St. Helena.—London Globe.

HELPED THE RETAIL TRADE.

Cooler Weather Stimulates Industry in the West and South.

New York, Nov. 5.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says cooler weather has helped retail trade at the West and South. This is reflected in some reorder business from jobbers and wholesalers, whose trade, while steady and better than last year at this date, is not entirely up to expectations. This is possibly due in a measure to the close proximity of election, which is credited in a few reports with holding back business. The industries give quite satisfactory reports, iron in its crude forms leading, with active demands at advancing prices. Seasonable cold weather helps the coal business, but the lack of water in the coke districts and in the Eastern streams tend to restrict some manufacturing operations. Collections are good, being relatively best at the South. Railway earnings for the first half of October will run 9.12 per cent ahead of those of 1903. There still appear unmistakable signs that caution and conservatism have not lost their value as yet and that these qualities still weight the tendency toward optimism noted in recently preceding weeks.

Features in this week's dispatches are the good reports from leading Western centers as to retail trade. Settled cold weather is needed at the East to stimulate fall business. Shoe manufacturers are stimulated by fall orders.

REPLY BY ROOSEVELT

THE PRESIDENT ANSWERS THE RECENT STATEMENTS OF JUDGE PARKER.

CHARACTERIZED AS UNTRUE

CHARGES OF THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE ARE HELD TO BE UNFOUNDED.

Washington, Nov. 5.—President Roosevelt Friday night made the following signed statement to the American people in answer to the charges against him and Chairman Cortelyou of the Republican national committee, by Judge Parker, Democratic candidate for the presidency:

"Certain slanderous statements with regard to myself and Mr. Cortelyou have been repeated time and again by Judge Parker, the candidate of the Democratic party for the presidency. He neither has produced nor can produce any proof of their truth, yet he has not withdrawn them, and as his position gives them wide currency I speak now lest the silence of self respect be misunderstood.

"Mr. Parker's charges are in effect that the president of the United States and Mr. Cortelyou, formerly Mr. Cleveland's executive clerk, then Mr. McKinley's and my secretary, then secretary of commerce and labor, and now chairman of the Republican national committee, have been in a conspiracy to blackmail corporations. Mr. Cortelyou using his knowledge gained while he was secretary of the department of commerce and labor to extort money from the corporations; and I, the president, having appointed him for this special purpose the gravamen of these charges lies in the assertion that the corporations have been blackmailed into contributing, and in the implication, which in one or two of Mr. Parker's speeches has taken the form practically of an assertion, that they have been promised certain immunities or favors or have been assured that they would receive some kind of improper consideration in view of their contributions.

Not the Question at Issue.

"That contributions have been made to the Republican committee, as contributions have been made to the Democratic committee, is not the question at issue. Mr. Parker's assertion is in effect that such contributions have been made for improper motives, either in consequence of threats or in consequence of improper promises, direct or indirect, on the part of the presidents.

"Mr. Parker knows best whether this is true of the contributions to his campaign fund, which have come through his trusted friends and advisers, who represent the great corporate interests that stand behind him. But there is not one particle of truth in the statement as regards anything that has gone on in the management of the Republican campaign. Mr. Parker's accusations against Mr. Cortelyou and me are monstrous. If true they would brand both of us forever with infamy; and inasmuch as they are false, heavy must be the condemnation of the man making them.

"I chose Mr. Cortelyou as chairman of the national committee after having failed successfully to persuade Mr. Elihu Root, Mr. W. Murray Crane and Mr. Cornelius N. Bliss to accept the position. I choose him with extreme reluctance, because I could ill spare him from the cabinet. But I felt that he possessed the high integrity which I demanded in the man who was to manage my campaign. I contend that Mr. Parker and I should be judged by the public in the characteristics of the two men whom we chose to manage our campaigns; he by the character of his nominee, Mr. Thomas Taggart, and I by the character of Mr. Cortelyou.

Assertion Branded as False.

"The assertion that Mr. Cortelyou had any knowledge gained in any official position whereby he was enabled to secure and did secure any contributions from any corporation is a falsehood. The assertion that there had been any blackmail, direct or indirect, by Mr. Cortelyou or by me is a falsehood. The assertion that there has been made in my behalf and by any authority by Mr. Cortelyou or by any one else any pledge or promise, or that there has been any promise as to future immunities or benefits in recognition of any contribution from any source is a wicked falsehood.

"That Mr. Parker should desire to avoid the discussion of principles I can well understand; for it is the bare truth to say that he has not attacked us on any matter of principle or upon any action of the government save after first misstating that principal or that action. But I cannot understand how any honorable man, a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people, can take refuge not merely in personalities, but in such base and unworthy personalities.

"If I deemed it necessary to support my flat denial by any evidence I would ask all men of common sense to ponder well what has been done in this campaign by Mr. Cortelyou and to compare it with what Mr. Parker himself did when he was managing Mr. Hill's campaign for governor, and to compare what has been done as regards the great corporations and moneyed interests under this administration with what was done under the last Democratic administration; while Mr. Olney was attorney general.

Parker's Statements Untrue.

"I would ask all honest men whether they seriously deem it possible that the course this administration has taken in every matter from the Northern Securities suit to the settlement of the anthracite coal strike is compatible with any theory of public behavior, save the theory of doing exact justice to all men without fear and without favoritism; I would ask all honest and fair minded men to remember that the agents through whom I have worked are Mr. Knox and Mr.

Moody in the department of justice; Mr. Cortelyou in the department of commerce and labor, and Mr. Garfield in the bureau of corporations, and that no such act of infamy as Mr. Parker charges could have been done without all three men being parties to it.

"The statements made by Mr. Parker are untruthfully and atrociously false. As Mr. Cortelyou has said to me more than once during this campaign, if elected, I shall go into the presidency unhampered by any pledge, promise, or understanding of any kind, sort or description, save my promise, made openly to the American people, that so far as in my power lies I shall see to it that every man has a square deal, no less and no more.

—THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

STATEMENT BY ODELL.

New York Governor Says Parker Owned Stock in a Trust.

New York, Nov. 5.—Governor Odell took up the matter of Judge Parker and the shipbuilding combine in his speech at the Murray Hill Lecture Friday night. He said:

"For the first time in my recollection a Democrat has seen fit to attack a president. I have stood the abuse heaped on my head, but when I find men parading as trust 'busters' when the contrary is in the truth I feel that it is not honest and is only being done to get our votes.

"I said Judge Parker had been connected with trusts. I know it. I know that Judge Parker had $20,000 of shipbuilding stock and the reason I know it is because he came to me and asked me to let him have it. I know it because I instructed my agent to give it to him and he paid for it. I can produce the documentary proof in a few hours by going to Newburg, where it is. A man who is attacking the trusts ought to come into court with clean hands. President Roosevelt, on the contrary, has been pulling down trusts. Honesty always wins, and Roosevelt has 100 per cent of honesty in his make up."

JUDGE PARKER WILL REPLY.

Will Answer President Roosevelt's Statement Saturday Night.

New York, Nov. 5.—The statement issued by President Roosevelt in Washington and the speech of Governor Odell in New York Friday night, in which the governor made certain charges against the Democratic candidate for president, were shown to Judge Parker at a late hour.

The judge had decided not to make any more speeches during this campaign, but after reading the president's statement and the governor's speech he announced that he would make a reply which will be delivered before the Kings County Democratic club Saturday night. Judge Parker would make no comment on the statement and speech last night.

CLEVELAND'S SECOND SPEECH.

The Former President Addresses a Large Crowd at Newark, N. J.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 5.—With a tribute to the strength and enthusiasm of the first voter, Former President Grover Cleveland, in this city last night began his second speech of the present campaign. He had waited ten minutes for the cessation of the cheering and noise that his appearance brought forth, and for thirty-five minutes after he began his address, 8,000 persons crowded together on the tankard of a hiding academy, alternately listening and cheering.

The occasion was the closing Democratic rally of the campaign, a rally under the auspices of a club of "first voters."

This was Mr. Cleveland's first appearance this campaign in his own state. He came to Newark early in the evening and was the guest of Former Senator James Smith, Jr. During his speech, Mr. Cleveland was interrupted by remarks of approval and on several occasions when he departed from his text to impress upon his hearers some point upon state issues, the demonstration broke out afresh and continued for several minutes. The remarks of the speaker upon the needs of a conservative government were received with prolonged outburst, and when he concluded rallying his hearers to the support of "that noble, that manly standard bearer, Alton B. Parker," the enthusiasm seemed to gain renewed strength.

IN DEMOCRATIC STRONGHOLD.

Senator Fairbanks Tours Southern Part of Indiana.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 5.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks Friday covered the territory in Southern Indiana from Terre Haute to Evansville. The senator made fifteen speeches during the day's trip at Farmersburg, Shelbyville, Sullivan, Linton, Odon, Elmore, Washington, Vincennes, Princeton, Owensville, Cynthiana, Poseyville, Mount Vernon and Evansville. The evening meeting in this city, which was notably large, was presided over by Congressman Joseph M. Hemenway. The day's tour was mostly through the coal mining region of Indiana and the miners in many instances formed a large part of the senator's audiences. To them he emphasized the desirability of a continuance of Republican rule, because, he said, it was under Republican administration that all the prosperity had come to the mines, the farms and the factories during the past seven years. A large portion of the country through which Senator Fairbanks passed Friday is regarded as the Democratic stronghold of Indiana, and there were occasional cheers for Parker, but in the main the reception accorded the senator were cordial and enthusiastic.

SLAYER OF LAYTON SUICIDES.

Jacob Graves Found Dead in His Cabin in Iowa.

Burlington, Ia., Nov. 5.—Jacob Graves, who Thursday shot and killed Thomas Layton, was found in his cabin on Fry's island Friday by officers who were pursuing him. He had a bullet in his head. He had eluded justice by suicide. The remains were taken to Fort Madison and laid in the morgue beside his victim.

No Change in Election Returns.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 5.—There is no material change in the Dominion election returns. The majority for the government at present stands at 72 in a house of 214 members.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, even the worst cases can be cured and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Louis Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by H. P. Dunn & Co., druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

INSULT THEIR TEETH.

That's What People Do Who Do Not Masticate Their Food.

People who swallow their food whole are insulting their teeth. The teeth are there to perform their duty, and the one who fails to use them is implying that they are not fit for the duty assigned them. Again, he is letting them get rusty by disuse.

Don't favor the teeth until it is necessary. Give them plenty of work to do. Eat crusts, and when eating meat spare not the work of the teeth.

Few people will eat food from dirty fingers, yet hosts of men, women and children eat food with poorly kept teeth. What kind of care of the stomach is this?

Dressing tables and vest pockets are filled with nail files, but the silk thread or the rubber band for removing particles of food from between the teeth is more essential. If the person who neglects his teeth would look often in the glass and smile broadly he would know how his greetings affect his friends. This is not vanity. It would remove from many every particle of conceit. Any smile is spoiled by ill kept teeth.

Brush the teeth before and after eating. Carry the brush in a pocket or handbag. Use the silk thread or rubber band after meals. It can be carried with the brush.

WEeping WILLOWS.

The Curious Manner of Their Introduction to England.

The Salix Babylonica or Willow of Babylon, the English weeping willow, is a native of the Levant, the coast of Persia and other places in the east. The manner of its introduction into England is curious and has been described:

Pope, the poet, having received a present of Turkey figs, observed that a twig of the banquet in which they had been packed was putting out a young green shoot. This he planted in his garden where it grew into a fine tree, and from this original stock all our weeping willows have descended.

This species of willow is generally planted by a still pool, to which it is an appropriate ornament, and when, in misty weather, drops of water are seen distilling from the extremities of its branches nothing could be more descriptive than the title it has obtained of the "weeping willow."

It is sometimes called Pope's willow, and the name Napoleon's willow has also been given to it, because a tree of this species overshadowed the emperor's tomb at St. Helena—London Globe.

HELPED THE RETAIL TRADE.

Cooler Weather Stimulates Industry in the West and South.

New York, Nov. 5.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says cooler weather has helped retail trade at the West and South. This is reflected in some reorder business from jobbers and wholesalers, whose trade, while steady and better than last year at this date, is not entirely up to expectations. This is possibly due in a measure to the close proximity of election, which is credited in a few reports with holding back business. The industries give quite satisfactory reports, iron in its crude forms leading, with active demands at advancing prices. Seasonable cold weather helps the coal business, but the lack of water in the coke districts and in the Eastern streams tend to restrict some manufacturing operations. Collections are good, being relatively best at the South. Railway earnings for the first half of October will run 9.12 per cent ahead of those of 1903. There still appear unmistakable signs that caution and conservatism have not lost their value as yet and that these qualities still weight the tendency toward optimism noted in recently preceding weeks.

Features in this week's dispatches are the good reports from leading Western centers as to retail trade. Settled cold weather is needed at the East to stimulate fall business. Shoe manufacturers are stimulated by fall orders.

THE PRESIDENT ANSWERS THE RECENT STATEMENTS OF JUDGE PARKER.

CHARACTERIZED AS UNTRUE

CHARGES OF THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE ARE HELD TO BE UNFOUNDED.

Washington, Nov. 5.—President Roosevelt Friday night made the following signed statement to the American people in answer to the charges against him and Chairman Cortelyou of the Republican national committee, by Judge Parker, Democratic candidate for the presidency:

"Certain slanderous statements with regard to myself and Mr. Cortelyou have been repeated time and again by Judge Parker, the candidate of the Democratic party for the presidency. He neither has produced nor can produce any proof of their truth, yet he has not withdrawn them, and as his position gives them wide currency I speak now lest the silence of self respect be misunderstood.

"Mr. Parker's charges are in effect that the president of the United States and Mr. Cortelyou, formerly Mr. Cleveland's executive clerk, then Mr. McKinley's and my secretary, then secretary of commerce and labor, and now chairman of the Republican national committee, have been in a conspiracy to blackmail corporations. Mr. Cortelyou using his knowledge gained while he was secretary of the department of commerce and labor to extort money from the corporations; and I, the president, having appointed him for this special purpose the gravamen of these charges lies in the assertion that the corporations have been blackmailed into contributing, and in the implication, which in one or two of Mr. Parker's speeches has taken the form practically of an assertion, that they have been promised certain immunities or favors or have been assured that they would receive some kind of improper consideration in view of their contributions.

Not the Question at Issue.

"That contributions have been made to the Republican committee, as contributions have been made to the Democratic committee, is not the question at issue. Mr. Parker's assertion is in effect that such contributions have been made for improper motives, either in consequence of threats or in consequence of improper promises, direct or indirect, on the part of the recipients.

"Mr. Parker knows best whether this is true of the contributions to his campaign fund, which have come through his trusted friends and advisers, who represent the great corporate interests that stand behind him. But there is not one particle of truth in the statement as regards anything that has gone on in the management of the Republican campaign. Mr. Parker's accusations against Mr. Cortelyou and me are monstrous. If true they would brand both of us forever with infamy; and inasmuch as they are false, heavy must be the condemnation of the man making them.

"I chose Mr. Cortelyou as chairman of the national committee after having failed successively to persuade Mr. Elihu Root, Mr. W. Murray Crane and Mr. Cornelius N. Bliss to accept the position. I choose him with extreme reluctance. I could ill spare him from the cabinet. But I felt that he possessed the high integrity which I demanded in the man who was to manage my campaign. I contend that Mr. Parker and I should be judged by the public in the characteristics of the two men whom we chose to manage our campaigns; he by the character of his nominee, Mr. Thomas Taggart, and I by the character of Mr. Cortelyou.

Assertion Branded as False.

"The assertion that Mr. Cortelyou had any knowledge gained in any official position whereby he was enabled to secure and did secure any contributions from any corporation is a falsehood. The assertion that there had been any blackmail, direct or indirect, by Mr. Cortelyou or by me is a falsehood. The assertion that there has been made in my behalf and by my authority by Mr. Cortelyou or by any one else any pledge or promise, or that there has been any promise as to future immunities or benefits in recognition of any contribution from any source is a wicked falsehood.

"That Mr. Parker should desire to avoid the discussion of principles I can well understand; for it is but the bare truth to say that he has not attacked us on any matter of principle or upon any action of the government save after first misstating that principle or that action. But I cannot understand how any honorable man, a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people, can take refuge not merely in personalities, but in such base and unworthy personalities.

"If I deemed it necessary to support my flat denial by any evidence I would ask all men of common sense to ponder well what has been done in this campaign by Mr. Cortelyou and to compare it with what Mr. Parker himself did when he was managing Mr. Hill's campaign for governor, and to compare what has been done as regards the great corporations and moneyed interests under this administration with what was done under the last Democratic administration; while Mr. Olney was attorney general.

Parker's Statements Untrue.

"I would ask all honest men whether they seriously deem it possible that the course this administration has taken in every matter from the Northern Securities suit to the settlement of the anthracite coal strike is compatible with any theory of public behavior, save the theory of doing exact justice to all men without fear and without favoritism; I would ask all honest and fair minded men to remember that the agents through whom I have worked are Mr. Knox and Mr.

Moody in the department of justice; Mr. Cortelyou in the department of commerce and labor, and Mr. Garfield in the bureau of corporations, and that no such act of iniquity as Mr. Parker charges could have been done without all three men being parties to it.

"The statements made by Mr. Parker are unqualifiedly and atrociously false. As Mr. Cortelyou has said to me more than once during this campaign, if elected, I shall go into the presidency unhampered by any pledge, promise, or understanding of any kind, sort or description, save my promise, made openly to the American people, that so far as in my power lies I shall see to it that every man has a square deal, no less and no more.

—THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

STATEMENT BY ODELL.

New York Governor Says Parker Owned Stock in a Trust.

New York, Nov. 5.—Governor Odell took up the matter of Judge Parker and the shipbuilding combine in his speech at the Murray Hill Luncheon Friday night. He said:

"For the first time in my recollection a Democrat has seen fit to attack a president. I have stood the abuse heaped on my head, but when I find men parading as trust 'busters' when the contrary is in the truth I feel that it is not honest and is only being done to get our votes.

"I said Judge Parker had been connected with trusts. I know it. I know that Judge Parker had $20,000 of shipbuilding stock and the reason I know it is because he came to me and asked me to let him have it. I know it because I instructed my agent to give it to him and he paid for it. I can produce the documentary proof in a few hours by going to Newburg, where it is. A man who is attacking the trusts ought to come into court with clean hands. President Roosevelt, on the contrary, has been pulling down trusts. Honesty always wins, and Roosevelt has 100 per cent of honesty in his make up."

JUDGE PARKER WILL REPLY.

Will Answer President Roosevelt's Statement Saturday Night.

New York, Nov. 5.—The statement issued by President Roosevelt in Washington and the speech of Governor Odell in New York Friday night, in which the governor made certain charges against the Democratic candidate for president, were shown to Judge Parker at a late hour.

The judge had decided not to make any more speeches during this campaign, but after reading the president's statement and the governor's speech he announced that he would make a reply which will be delivered before the Kings County Democratic club Saturday night. Judge Parker would make no comment on the statement and speech last night.

CLEVELAND'S SECOND SPEECH.

The Former President Addresses a Large Crowd at Newark, N. J.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 5.—With a tribute to the strength and enthusiasm of the first voter, Former President Grover Cleveland, in this city last night began his second speech of the present campaign. He had waited ten minutes for the cessation of the cheering and noise that his appearance brought forth, and for thirty-five minutes after he began his address, 8,000 persons crowded together on the tankard of a riding academy, alternately listened and cheered.

The occasion was the closing Democratic rally of the campaign, a rally under the auspices of a club of "first voters."

This was Mr. Cleveland's first appearance this campaign in his own state. He came to Newark early in the evening and was the guest of former Senator James Smith, Jr. During his speech, Mr. Cleveland was interrupted by remarks of approval and on several occasions when he departed from his text to impress upon his hearers some point upon state issues, the demonstration broke out afresh and continued for several minutes. The remarks of the speaker upon the needs of a conservative government were received with prolonged outburst, and when he concluded rallying his hearers to the support of "that noble, that manly standard bearer, Alton B. Parker," the enthusiasm seemed to gain renewed strength.

IN DEMOCRATIC STRONGHOLD.

Senator Fairbanks Tours Southern Part of Indiana.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 5.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks Friday covered the territory in Southern Indiana from Terre Haute to Evansville. The senator made fifteen speeches during the day's trip at Farmersburg, Shelbyville, Sullivan, Linton, Odon, Ellettsburg, Vincennes, Princeton, Owensville, Cynthiana, Poseyville, Mount Vernon and Evansville. The evening meeting in this city, which was notably large, was presided over by Congressman Joseph M. Hemenway. The day's tour was mostly through the coal mining region of Indiana and the miners in many instances formed a large part of the senator's audiences. To them he emphasized the desirability of a continuance of Republican rule, because, he said, it was under Republican administration that all the prosperity had come to the mines, the farms and the factories during the past seven years. A large portion of the country through which Senator Fairbanks passed Friday is regarded as the Democratic stronghold of Indiana, and there were occasional cheers for Parker, but in the main the reception accorded the senator was cordial and enthusiastic.

SLAYER OF LAYTON SUICIDES.

Jacob Graves Found Dead in His Cabin in Iowa.

Burlington, Ia., Nov. 5.—Jacob Graves, who Thursday shot and killed Thomas Layton, was found in his cabin on Fry's Island Friday by officers who were pursuing him. He had a bullet in his head. He had eluded justice by suicide. The remains were taken to Fort Madison and laid in the morgue beside his victim.

No Change in Election Returns.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 5.—There is no material change in the Dominion election returns. The majority for the government at present stands at 72 in a house of 214 members.

INSULT THEIR TEETH.

That's What People Do Who Do Not Masticate Their Food.

People who swallow their food whole are insulting their teeth. The teeth are there to perform their duty, and the one who fails to use them is implying that they are not fit for the duty assigned them. Again, he is letting them get rusty by disuse.

Don't favor the teeth until it is necessary. Give them plenty of work to do. Eat crusts, and when eating meat spare not the work of the teeth.

Few people will eat food from dirty fingers, yet hosts of men, women and children eat food with poorly kept teeth. What kind of care of the stomach is this?

Dressing tables and vest pockets are filled with nail files, but the silk thread or the rubber band for removing particles of food from between the teeth is more essential. If the person who neglects his teeth would look often in the glass and smile broadly he would know how his greetings affect his friends. This is not vanity. It would remove from many every particle of conceit. Any smile is spoiled by ills kept teeth.

Brush the teeth before and after eating. Carry the brush in a pocket or handbag.

Use the silk thread or rubber band after meals. It can be carried with the brush.

WEEPING WILLOWS.

The Curious Manner of Their Introduction into England.

The Salix Babylonica or Willow of Babylon, the English weeping willow, is a native of the Levant, the coast of Persia and other places in the east. The manner of its introduction into England is curious and has been described:

Pope, the poet, having received a present of Turkey figs, observed that a twig of the basket in which they had been packed was putting out a young green shoot. This he planted in his garden where it grew into a fine tree, and from this original stock all our weeping willows have descended.

This species of willow is generally planted by a still pool, to which it is an appropriate ornament, and when, in misty weather, drops of water are seen distilling from the extremities of its branches nothing could be more descriptive than the title it has obtained of the "weeping willow."

It is sometimes called Pope's willow, and the name Napoleon's willow has also been given to it, because a tree of this species overshadowed the emperor's tomb at St. Helena.—London Globe.

HELPED THE RETAIL TRADE.

Cooler Weather Stimulates Industry in the West and South.

New York, Nov. 5.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says cooler weather has helped retail trade at the West and South. This is reflected in some reorder business from jobbers and wholesalers, whose trade, while steady and better than last year at this date, is not entirely up to expectations. This is possibly due in a measure to the close proximity of election, which is credited in a few reports with holding back business. The industries give quite satisfactory reports, iron in its crude forms leading, with active demands at advancing prices. Seasonable cold weather helps the coal business, but the lack of water in the coal districts and in the Eastern streams tend to restrict some manufacturing operations. Collections are good, being relatively best at the South. Railway earnings for the first half of October will run 9.12 per cent ahead of those of 1903. There still appear unmistakable signs that caution and conservatism have not lost their value as yet and that these qualities still weight the tendency toward optimism noted in recently preceding weeks.

Features in this week's dispatches are the good reports from leading Western centers as to retail trade. Settled cold weather is needed at the East to stimulate fall business. Shoe manufacturers are stimulated by fall orders.
